

Andrew Murray's *Abiding in Christ
Chapter Eleven

1. Paul said, "I am crucified with Christ; nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ lives in me". What does it mean to be crucified with Christ?

2. What does it mean when Paul says it is "yet not I, yet Christ lives in me"?

3. In our union with Christ, how can we look upon Christ's death as our death?

4. What does being made conformable to Christ's death (page 60) involve?

5. What does it take to get to that place of undivided surrender?

6. Why do you think we may have so little desire for fellowship with the Crucified One?

7. What do you think is the difference between ordinary afflictions and the fellowship of suffering in Christ?

8. Find at least one Scripture that pertains to dying to self?
