

Andrew Murray's Abiding in Christ
Chapter Seven

1. According to Murray, how does one come to know God better? Is this different from your approach in the past?

2. What are some things that may be hindering you from “counting all things but loss for the excellency of knowing Christ”?

3. In your own words, explain what it means to know Christ in “the power of His resurrection & the fellowship of His sufferings” (Phil 3:10)?

4. Have you ever felt that God has left you without a key for the riches of wisdom and knowledge (without His guidance and light)? What is Murray's reply to this experience (page 44)?

5. What do you see as the benefits of pursuing wisdom?

6. Why can we be confident of having unerring guidance?

7. How does Murray suggest we abide in Christ as our wisdom (seeking His wisdom)?

8. What did you find significant in your reading?
