Andrew Murray's Abiding in Christ
Chapter Eight

1. What are the benefits of peace in our lives?

2. What do you think the difference between peace of God and peace with God?

3. Why is righteousness necessary for peace?

4. How does the atoning death affect our experience of daily rigtheousness?

5. How should the work of Christ at initial salvation eventully lead us into the personal union (the very heart, the love and the life of Christ)?

6. What is the importance of faith in our experience of righteousness?

7. How is putting on Jesus Christ different from believing in Jesus Christ initially in salvation?

8. What did you find significant in your reading?