

Andrew Murray's Abiding in Christ
Chapter 14

1. What are your thoughts on the concept of living the Christian life a day at a time.

2. Murray stated a few things that is to be the work of the day, what were they?

3. Throughout the reading, Murray uses adjectives or terms to describe our attitude for the work of the day? List some of them below.

4. Why is missing a day with the Lord harmful?

5. What is the benefit of reflection of our day both at night and in the morning?

6. What do you see as the benefits of having that time with the Lord in the morning?

7. What did you find significant in the this chapter?